Pioneer Bank Promotes Barrett, Eischen, Wiens, Lutterman and Mattes

November 16, 2022 (Mankato, MN)—Pioneer Bank has promoted five officers to new roles within their bank. “These individuals have proven what they’re capable of through their achievements. They are leaders in our organization and are deserving of promotion. They each bring unique skills and contributions to our success in serving our communities and our customers,” says David Krause, Pioneer Bank CEO.

Jeff Barrett has been named Vice President and will continue his role as a Business Banker at the St. James location.

Three of the bank’s residential mortgage lenders, Heather Eischen, Jennifer Wiens and Carissa Lutterman, have been promoted to Vice President for their exemplary work and award-winning production over the past several years.

Andrea Mattes has been named Vice President and will continue her role supervising the bank’s Credit Support Specialists and managing the bank’s Credit Operations department at the Mankato Adams Street location.
